Under the direction of Coach Wheeler, our team engaged in power-packed, exciting football. Contributing to Weymouth's outstanding performance were such players as Tom McMahon, Jim Taubert, Paul Dempsey, and Dana Morse. One of the highlights of the season was the traditional game played against Quincy High School in which the Maroons emerged victorious. If the efforts of next year's two squads parallel the efforts of this year's team, successful seasons lie ahead.

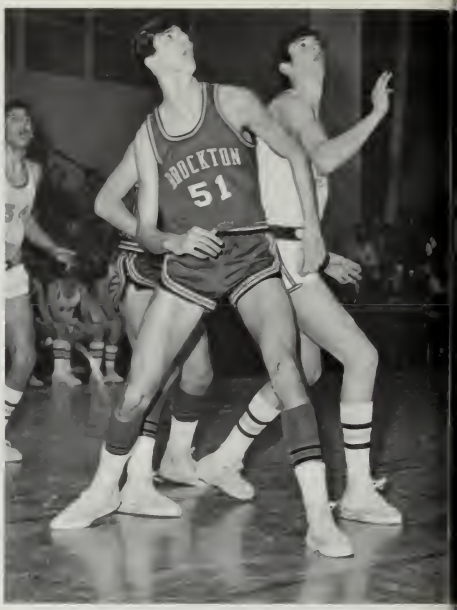
BASKETBALL



Although they met with strong opposition, the determination, spirit and desire to win of our basketball team remained throughout the season. Under the direction of Coach Kearns, Captain Larry Saint and other team members played exciting games bringing much enthusiasm to the stands. Next year, with two teams, Weymouth fans can expect fine high school basketball.

The 1969-70 Weymouth High School Hockey team was a new team in the new Suburban League. Only four regulars returned from last year's winning team. Senior Joe Lamm was back as was last year's second line of Paul Haley, Wayne Douglas, and Steve Wrye.

Mr. Dempsey had the task of choosing a new team from the eighty candidates who wished to make the squad.

The team started slowly, registering a 3-4-2 record in the first half of the season. The young team gained experience and compiled a respectable 6-2-1 record in the remaining games.

Seniors Bob Goggin, Charlie Dorman, and Joe Lamm played an important role in Weymouth's second half success.

In the year end all-star balloting, Steve Wrye was chosen for the second team. Honorable mentions were accorded to Bob Goggin, Paul Haley, Wayne Douglas, and "Bo" O'Shaughnessy.

With the loss of only three players, it would seem that a fine year lies ahead. Tempering this thought is the reality that the squad will be divided into two teams in the strong Suburban League.

WRESTLING

The Weymouth wrestling team, although compiling a 7-4 record, was inspired by Coach Jannino to finish third in the tough Northeastern Massachusetts Tournament. Of the twelve men on the team, only six scored for Weymouth: co-captains Kevin Farrell and Dana Morse, Steve Kohler, Jim Conroy, Brad Wellock, and Kevin Naughton. Throughout the year, co-captain Kevin Farrell, along with Steve Kohler and Brad Wellock, led the team with outstanding records. Coach Jannino did a great job with the team which had only four starters from last year's squad.

Cross-country, one of the unsung sports, develops the dedicated athlete. The W.H.S. cross-country team, coached by Mr. O'Leary, compiled a record of five wins and four losses. The cross-country trophy was awarded to John Delorey. Other important members of the team were Mike Hickey, Mike Haley, Paul Shanahan, Mike Kobs, Ken Channel, and Captain, Dave Bombrick.

The young men you have seen braving the coldest of New England's days are members of the winter track team. Competing far from the cheers of fellow students, the boys, coached by Mr. O'Leary and Mr. Meehan, have been fine representatives of Weymouth High. Two of the year's highlights were the B.A.A. and the K. of C. meets held in the Boston Garden.

Mr. O'Leary and Mr. Meehan once again have the task of molding a winning spring track team. Carrying on with the long tradition of success, they look forward to a fine season.

The boys gymnastic team ended their season with one of the best records in recent years. Even in their losses the team was never out of contention. Captain David Martell and Glen Carver took third place in their events in the Suburban Individual League Meet. Other valuable members of the team were Stan Molignanno, Tom Gentile, and Paul Casey.

The 1970 Massachusetts State Championship title went to the Weymouth Girls' Gymnastics Team for the second year in a row. With the excellent coaching of Mrs. Kirby and Miss Parker, the girls soared to the State Meet undefeated. Seniors Ruth Vitale and Kathy Dempsey, and junior Bonnie Corrigan led the team with their outstanding abilities. Bonnie captured the title at the State Individual Meet. A versatile group, the team exhibited their skills in floor exercises, in vaulting, on the balance beam, and on the uneven bars.

CHEERLEADERS

From the first rousing cheer to the last second of play, our cheerleaders have charged the air with their enthusiasm and excitement. Captained by Cheryl Bickford, they encouraged both our football and basketball teams to make their best efforts this year. Under the direction of Miss Sheerin, the girls practiced daily to perfect their skills.

The cheerleaders evoked a great deal of spirit at the rallies held throughout the year. Their vitality aroused the faithful members of the student body to support our teams.

ACTIVITIES

J.M.S.V.C.

Under the guidance of Mrs. Magraw, the Junior Moral Spiritual Values Committee, participates in many worthwhile community activities. Sr. Chairman Bill Concannon, Jr. Chairman Neil Steinkraus, and Secretary Bonnie Hall preside at the monthly meetings. Frequent trips were taken to Paul Dever School to help the mentally retarded. As much satisfaction was gained at the blind picnics as there was when some members worked at the nursing homes in Weymouth. The Hospital Committee worked diligently all year to make favors for the area hospitals and institutions.

The international assembly and Brotherhood Week were great successes. Foreign students toured our school for one day, and then introduced themselves at an interesting assembly. In March, a second assembly presented all the Chilian students in the South Shore to the students of Weymouth High. Native dances and songs added to the hour.

Weymouth High can only hope that J.M.S.V.C. will keep up the good work next year.

KEY CLUB

The Key Club, directed by Mr. Daly and sponsored by the Weymouth Kiwanis Club, has an active membership of twenty-five students. The officers are President, Bill Gardner; Vice President, Marty Mahoney; Secretary, Chuck Dion; Treasurer, Gerry McKenna.

The activities of the club include co-sponsoring the Book Fair with the Debate Club and giving Thanksgiving baskets to needy families in Weymouth. Also, the Key Club sponsored a hockey game between its members and the men's faculty. In addition to this, the club had the pleasure of hearing various guest speakers, including Mr. Santacroce of the Weymouth Welfare Department and Captain Rumble of the Weymouth Police Force.

Because of their generous service to our town, the Key Club is considered a very special organization.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Composed of elected representatives of the school, the Student Council meets regularly each week under the supervision of Miss Martinez and Mr. Brizzi. This year's officers are President, Ed Nalband; Vice President, Steve Hartry; Secretary, Kathy Dempsey; Treasurer, Chris Materia.

Throughout the year, the Student Council engaged in many worthwhile activities. They sponsored a successful Fall dance and distributed Thanksgiving baskets to less fortunate families in Weymouth. The Globe Santa again collected a substantial amount from W.H.S. students. Also a car wash contributed toward the two 500 dollar scholarships which the Student Council awards each year. Perhaps their greatest accomplishment was the establishing of a new dress code.

CHORUS

Under the direction of Mr. Burns, the Weymouth High School Chorus presented many entertaining performances throughout the year. The Madrigal Dinner held in December and a concert at Symphony Hall for American Airlines brought them much recognition. Also, they did an outstanding job singing at Old South Union Church and at our own Spring Concert.

The Weymouth High School Chorale, composed of exceptionally talented chorus members, worked hard in presenting various special choral pieces. At the National Honor Society induction ceremony in March, they displayed their unique ability.

BAND AND ORCHESTRA

During the 1969-1970 year, the Weymouth High School Maroon and Gold Band has shown its dexterity, shifting form from the concert hall to the football field, and back. The band sparked Weymouth fans' spirit at all the football games and provided interesting half-time entertainment as well. Our band is one of the most highly respected high school bands in the state, thanks to the efforts of hardworking, interested students, and the dedication of Mr. Warren, who works not only with the band as a whole, but with the individual musicians as well.

The band not only supplies entertainment for the school, but also provides its services for the community. It schedules concerts twice a year for interested Weymouth citizens, backs up the high school chorus at its concerts, and marches in town-wide parades and celebrations.

The Weymouth High School Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Burke, is comprised of sophomores, juniors, and seniors who wish to further their knowledge of orchestral music. In addition to the daily rehearsals in preparation for the annual Spring Concert, members learn the fundamentals of music and the basic techniques in conducting an orchestra. Particularly talented musicians were chosen to participate in the All-State, District, and New England Concert Festivals.

F.B.L.A.

The Future Business Leaders of America Club is comprised of business students hopeful of gaining knowledge and experience which cannot be obtained in the classroom. Guest speakers inform the club members about professional and business ethics and also share their valuable experiences. Each year the club visits a business or business school and sells class pins to raise money for their annual award to an outstanding business senior.

The Future Nurses of America Club, under the supervision of Mrs. Hoyle, offers the opportunity to all interested students to become acquainted with the field of medicine.

The officers of the club are: Phyllis McHugh, President; Janet Cashman, Vice President; Maureen Brennan, Secretary; Terry Caron, Treasurer. During the school year, these officers, along with active club members, entertained many interesting guests, including a recruiter from the Army Nurse Corps and several student nurses from various schools.

Since the rewards of a medical career are many, the F.N.A. hopes to encourage its members to seek the unlimited horizons of nursing and its allied fields.

F.T.A.

Under the capable leadership of Miss Pearson and President Bonnie Lagrotteria, the Future Teachers Club meets regularly each month. The activities of the club include field trips to different colleges in the Boston area.

Program Chairman Judi Jamieson has the duty of inviting guests speakers to each meeting. In April, all members visit a class in the Weymouth school system where they observe the actual teaching process. This enables members to plan more easily their future professions.

MATH TEAM

The Math Team, under the able guidance of Mr. Duseau, competes four times each year against ten other teams. The meet consists of five-ten minute tests and a ten minute team question.

This year's members are seniors: Kathy Owens and Laurie Harrington; juniors: Neil Steinkraus and Edward Taylor; and sophomores: Jane Atwater and Russ O'Connor. The team has averaged a fifth place finish in the division competition.

D.E.C.A.

The only national youth organization operating through the public schools of the nation to attract young people to careers in marketing and distribution is known as the Distributive Education Club of America. Under the guidance of Mrs. Doucette, D.E.C.A. members strive to develop their abilities in the field of merchandising. In March, the students participated in a state conference at the Prudential Building. The purpose of this was to inspire individual and group leadership.

POLITICAL AFFAIRS CLUB

The Political Affairs Club meets weekly to discuss politics and current events. Aided by the members of the Social Studies Department, the meetings are both informative and stimulating. Students in the vicinity of the Social Studies wing on Friday afternoons are familiar with the ideals of our future political scientists.

WHS-TV

WHS-TV had a successful start airing a number of interesting and informative programs. The year's highlights were a student debate over the question of the voting age, a review of the 1969 football season, and interviews with foreign guests on International Day.

FILMMAKERS CLUB

Every Tuesday afternoon President Pam Van Orden calls the Filmmakers Club to order. The club not only discusses different filmmaking techniques, but also makes their own movies during and after school. Their major activity this year was the Film Festival, a series of short films shown after school for all students.

CAMERA CLUB

The photo enthusiasts at Weymouth High join the Camera Club to learn the techniques of taking a good picture. Members of the club take pictures and then develop the pictures themselves. Different methods of photography are also discussed at each meeting.

SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club, newly formed this year, engages in many worthwhile and educational activities. The officers, Bob Long, Bob Murray, and June Fulton continually propose new and exciting projects for the club to do. This year the Science Club members took field trips to the Natick Army Laboratory and to Harvard University. They were privileged to hear guest speakers from A.A.A.S. and N.E.A.R.M. Growing crystals, making mirrors, and experimenting with vacuum chambers also opened deeper paths of scientific curiosity for these young scientists.

CONSERVATION CLUB

This year the Conservation Club taught at Johnson School and conducted guided nature walks at Great Esker Park. On March 14, Michelle Garbarczuk, chairman of the club, organized the members and students from the high school to clean-up the Weymouth Herring Run. On March 21, "An Evening of Conservation," sponsored by the club was presented in the auditorium. There were seven guest speakers, slides, and a film. Another of the clubs community projects was finding homes for dogs in the dog pound. This summer the teaching program at Esker Park and its science center will be continued. Those wishing to visit the park will be cordially invited by the staff.

CHESS CLUB

The members of the Chess Club, under the guidance of Mr. Lofgren and President, Bob Merriman, practice their powers of concentration each Monday afternoon in round-robin tournaments. The W.H.S. Chess Club is a member of the South Shore Interscholastic Chess League. The boys battle wits with such schools as Thayer Academy, Notre Dame Academy, Hingham, and Sharon High Schools. The game of chess teaches its players valuable lessons in patience, good sportsmanship, and careful calculations.

FRENCH CLUB

In spite of a late start, the French Club still managed to view a French movie and dine at a French restaurant. Under the able guidance of Monsieur Porter, the club enjoyed another fun-filled year.

RIDING CLUB

The Riding Club, under the direction of Sue Chamberlain, President, and Anne Cheney, Vice President, meets weekly to plan its Sunday ride at Redsam's Stable in Randolph. With the sage advice of their supervisor, Miss Finn, they organized their annual hay ride at Lazy-S-Ranch in Canton. As a part of their weekly excursions, the members instruct each other in various techniques of horsemanship. The Riding Club joined with other student organizations to help the J.M.S.V.C. during their Be Concerned Week.

SKI CLUB

This year, the Ski Club was headed by President, Pam Barry; Vice President, Libby Fay; and Secretary-Treasurer Sue Ketchen, who organized several outings. During the February vacation, the club members enjoyed a weekend trip to Mad River in Morestown, Vermont. The group of forty-five students, supervised by Miss Finn and Mr. and Mrs. Burgess, stayed at the Four Seasons Lodge and skied under great conditions both days. Also, the group viewed the film "Downhill Racer."

DEBATE SOCIETY

One of the most important but least publicized activities at Weymouth High School is the Debate Club. Consisting of two divisions, varsity and novice, the team regularly debates the national high school topic. This year the topic was, Resolved: That Congress should prohibit United States unilateral military intervention.

In debate, the emphasis is not on winning, but on the development of logic. The logic that is involved in the research, organization, and presentation of a plan gives valuable aid to students planning to study forensics, writing, or other related subjects.

This year, the Debate Club, under the direction of Mr. John Ghiorse, participated in many debate seminars sponsored by the South Shore Debate League. This prepared the students for the round of invitational debate tourneys which was held later in the year.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society was established May 1, 1969. The purpose of the society is to honor the academic, leadership, and citizenship qualities of a student. Members are selected first and foremost by their academic performances, after which their names are submitted to the faculty who evaluate them on their citizenship and leadership qualities.

The officers elected were Kristine Kalaijian, President; Jeanne MacLaren, Vice President; Cindy Alemian, Secretary; Richard McDonough, Treasurer.

This year, the induction ceremony was held on March 12. Mr. Stanton, along with various members of the society, spoke. The Honor Society also conferred its first honorary membership on Miss Norris. The evening was most rewarding.

FOREIGN STUDENTS

This year Weymouth High School has been host to nine students from six countries: Chile, China, Mexico, Rumania, Turkey, and Vietnam. These students attend regular classes and classes in conversational English under Mr. McCarthy's direction. With their unique amiable personalities, thesenine foreign students have greatly enriched both our student body and faculty in human understanding.

THEATRE ARTS CLUB

With a total membership of over thirty students, the Theatre Arts Club possesses a great deal of talent. Under the direction of Mr. Daniels, the club presented an evening of one act plays. Needless to say, this production was very successful.

Headed by Bill Concannon and Terry Doyle, the Theatre Arts Club also displayed an interesting account of the development of drama in the windows of the main lobby.

Through the efforts of this club, Weymouth High School students have had the opportunity to enjoy fine talent.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

Under the superb direction of Mr. McCarthy, the class of '70 presented Stardust as its senior class play. A hilarious comedy by Walter Keir, it involves a young actress' rise to fame. The amusing plot was treated with originality and ingenuity by the talented dramatic club members. The back stage crew and the publicity and ticket sales committees also contributed to the success of this production.

N.O.W.

For the first time in many years Weymouth High School has a weekly newspaper. Co-editors Bill Concannon and Charlie White, along with Dave Griswold, Kevin Coyne, and Mark Mulready, succeed each week in producing an interesting account of school events. The entire student body participates by submitting their own articles.

Faculty advisor, Mr. Porter, assists the students each week by giving his opinions and advice. Without the efforts of Miss Norris and many capable business students, who type and print each issue, N.O.W. would not have been the success that it is.

REFLECTOR

The Reflector, Weymouth High's literary magazine, is the publising outlet for creative members of the student body. The magazine publishes poetry, short stories, reviews, essays, art work, and other pieces of an artistic nature.

The staff, headed by editor Joanne D'Alcomo and Asst. Editor Mike Edmonds, writes articles on topics of interest, and collects literary works from the student body. Material is evaluated by an editorial board of seven staff members, who determine which pieces will be printed. Diligent secretaries then type the articles to the specifications of the print shop, who print the magazine in its final form.

This year's first issue was the best in Reflector history, containing ninety pages of superb, original creations. The staff and student body should be congratulated for producing consistently enlightening literature.

CAMPUS

The Campus room, the nerve center for the seemingly unending job of publication, is often a scene of chaos and confusion. Members of the staff have spent their year planning, writing, proofreading, and typing. All work is made ready for the fast approaching deadlines. The art staff, those dedicated individuals who receive no recognition, spend long hours planning designs and layouts. Members of the sales staff have the unenviable job of soliciting the funds to help support the 1970 Campus.

SOPHOMORES

Weymouth High School, built in the late 1800's, will no longer house high school students. A long line of dedicated educators, scholars, and student athletes have moved through her halls. The present sophomore class has the honor of being the last to leave. In an age of fast moving change, we hope that Weymouth's youth will not forget their happy high school days.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The 1970 yearbook staff sincerely hopes that you enjoy your copy of the Campus. From September to June, the staff members have been devoted to the purpose of presenting this yearbook to you.

We, the editors, would like to thank those people without whom this project could not have become a reality: the administration and faculty of Weymouth High School and Annex; the officers and employees of Alston Studio; Mr. Stephen Chop, artist in residence; and last but not least, Mr. James Egan, our understanding advisor.
